Tumbleweed Gumbo

St. Patty's Day Sing-Along!
Beer, Wine & Cider sales on site

March 15 @ 3PM

Arts Cafe Series

Have you ever imagined yourself in an Irish Pub, joining in on those old rowdy songs about the Wild Rover and the Star of the County Down? Imagine no more! With Larry Jordan leading the charge, we're gonna have a rollikin, swollikin bold old time belting the choruses of Bold O'Donoghue, Black Velvet Band, The Rising of the Moon and many more. Sure, you can just stomp your feet, clap your hands and hoot as Central New York legend Liz Fiddle shreds Irish, Scottish, Quebec and Cape Breton fiddle tunes between drinking songs (with a little help from Werner Koegst on bass, Steve Blais on bodhrán and button accordion), but we'll make the singin' easy for yez with lyric sheets and unconditional love for whatever comes outta yer gob!

John McCutcheon

Sponsored by Bruce Ward Architect

Beer, Wine & Cider sales on site

March 27 @ 7PM

From inauspicious beginnings, John McCutcheon has emerged as one of our most respected and loved folksingers. As an instrumentalist, he is a master of a dozen different traditional instruments, most notably the rare and beautiful hammer dulcimer. His songwriting has been hailed by critics and singers around the globe. His recordings have garnered every imaginable honor including seven Grammy nominations. He has produced over twenty albums of other artists, from traditional fiddlers to contemporary singer-songwriters to educational and documentary works, and just released his 40th album. John's books and instructional materials have introduced budding players to the joys of their own musicality. His commitment to grassroots political organizations has put him on the front lines of many of the issues important to communities and workers. What an honor to have such talent perform in Earlville!
