Squirrel Nut Zippers

Holiday Caravan

Thursday, December 7th, @ 7PM
$60 General / $54 Members

Performing songs from their Christmas Caravan and Mardi Gras for Christmas albums as well as other tried and true holiday favorites, the Squirrel Nut Zippers awaken the true essence of the season. From heartwarming ballads to raucous dance tunes, the band conjures an atmosphere nestled somewhere between the wondrous lights of Christmas and the backroom din of a speakeasy. This show is a must-see for any true music lover.

Inspired by 1920's jazz, klezmer and vaudeville, the Zippers' endlessly curious and innovative leader Jimbo Mathus has concocted a sound truly unique and original. No other artist of his generation has embraced and synthesized eclectic influences in such a seamless, authentic manner. This unique blend is on full display with the Holiday Caravan show which has increasingly grown in popularity, selling out concerts throughout the United States.

THE SHERBURNE MUSIC-THEATER SOCIETY PROUDLY PRESENTS

Sherburne Music-Theater Society presents
A Christmas Carol

By Christopher Schario
Based on the story by Charles Dickens

Saturday, December 2, 2023 • Shows at 2:00 PM and 7:00 PM
At the Earlville Opera House

Free will donation.

This event is made possible with public funds from the Statewide Community Reentry Program, a regrant program of the New York State Council on the Arts with the support of the Office of the Governor and the New York State Legislature, and administered by The Earlville Opera House.

*Presented by special arrangement with Broadway Licensing, LLC, servicing the Dramatists Play Service collection. (www.dramatists.com)

The Sherburne Music-Theater Society (SMTS) proudly presents an adapted version of Charles Dickens' A Christmas Carol, by Christopher Schario, with two productions on December 2nd at 2:00 and 7:00PM.

In this production, a young boy is introduced to the story through a copy of the book, which is mysteriously placed in his backpack. Instead of doing his homework, he becomes engrossed in the tale, and as the characters begin to come to life, he imagines himself portraying some of the roles.

Filled with ghosts and good deeds, it is a story for young and old of finding the Spirit of Christmas. It will be a wonderful way to begin the holiday season.

East Gallery Kelly Olshan "Someplace Else"

My work responds to the idealism and anxiety of endless striving, grappling with a relentless fixation on a better elsewhere. My 3D paintings and site-responsive installations invite the viewer to navigate an imagined landscape. Abstracted staircases defy spatial logic: rendered impossible to climb, they provide false pathways to an inaccessible place. READ MORE

On Display Through November 17th.

West Gallery JW Johnston "Home Body"

This is my home and I wear it like skin. This is where casual conversation provides sustenance, where triumphs are celebrated, failures endured, where my father died despite my attempts to resuscitate him, and where I once shared an observation with my mother before remembering she had died a week earlier. Arts Café Patrisha Heaton "A Retrospective"

Over the years I've worked with charcoal, pastels, acrylics, and darkroom photography. I felt an immediate shift when I bought myself an iPad and an Apple Pencil...I never looked back. I love the immediacy of using digital painting and collage with my images. READ MORE

FOR RENT: AVAILABLE IMMEDIATELY

Earlville Opera House (EOH) has an adjacent 1400 sq. foot storefront located at #8 East Main Street for rent beginning in October. We are now accepting proposals to lease this space.

In order to benefit both the tenants and the Opera House, we are specifically looking for a business that relates to Opera House programming and/or can provide a meaningful service to the greater Earlville community. For example, a store selling musical related items, a shop that has occasional live music or has a musical or artistic theme, however all business proposals will be thoughtfully considered. $900/mo. + utilities (garbage and water included).

Please submit the following information by email to: info@earlvilleoperahouse.com or mail to: EOH, PO 111, Earlville, NY 13332.

Serious inquires only.

Please include in your proposal:

- 1) The general concept for the business:
- 2) Your experience with this type of business:
- 3) Your experience with operating a business in general:
- 4) Do you have the resources for customizing the space for proposed operation:
- 5) Include any other information that would be helpful such as market research or a business plan.

We are always in need of office supplies and other things! If you can help, here are some other things we wish for:

- Enthusiastic volunteers
- Visits and smiles!

Become a Sustaining Partner

Your beloved Earlville Opera House faced tough new challenges during the pandemic shutdown. With no shows, no workshops or classes, galleries and gift shop closed and the theater dark we lost major portions of our revenue. We are still recovering from this and you can help by becoming a Sustaining Partner!

The Earville Opera House Multi Arts Center enriches the Central New York community through the visual and performing arts while preserving our beautiful historic theater. Founded in 1972 as a not-for-profit, volunteer-based, community service organization, we promote the arts in a rural region of Central New York by offering programs of cultural, educational, and historical significance; and preserving and restoring the architectural and historic integrity of the Earville Opera House, a unique second-story theater constructed in 1892. The Earville Opera House was added to the National Register of Historic Places in 1973.
